

FUSION FIVE MENTEE CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participating mentee of the Fusion Five Mentoring Program, I agree to the following Code of Conduct for Mentees. If I violate any of these rules, Fusion Five may suspend or terminate my participation as a Mentee in the Mentoring Program.

Confidentiality. I shall not disclose to any third party any personal details of my communications with my Mentor or fellow Mentees without prior permission of my Mentor.

Availability. I shall be available for a minimum of two (2) program-wide events and a minimum of four (4) small-group meetings with my mentor throughout the course of the program. If I will not be available for any reason, I will communicate immediately with my mentor to inform them.

Communications. In my communications with my Mentor, (1) I shall not use offensive language, and (2) I shall not transmit offensive images. Offensive language includes, but is not limited to, (a) profanity or verbal abuse directed towards the Mentor, (b) sexually suggestive comments directed towards the Mentor, and (c) derogatory remarks directed towards any individual or group of individuals based on religion, race, color, ethnicity, country of origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, or sexual identity. Offensive images include, but are not limited to, (a) images that are sexually suggestive, lewd, or pornographic and (b) images that include offensive language, as described above.

Topics for Discussion. If my Mentor expresses unwillingness, reluctance, or discomfort in discussing any topic that I have raised, I shall promptly cease pursuing that topic.

Personal Relationships. I shall not pursue a romantic or sexual relationship with my Mentor.

Meetings in Person. I understand that my mentor will meet me with me and my fellow mentees in a public/professional setting for in person (when feasible), monthly meetings. I am responsible for transportation to/from all events/meetings.

Prohibited Advice. I shall not seek medical, mental-health, or legal advice from my Mentor.

Financial Assistance. I shall not ask my Mentor for money. I am responsible for any food/drink expenses I incur during meetings. I do not expect my Mentor, fellow mentees, or Fusion Five to cover these expenses.

Duty to Report Impropriety. If I observe any Participant behaving in a manner that violates the Code of Conduct for Mentors or Mentees, I shall promptly report my observations to Fusion Five Board at info@fusionfive.org.
